Hector: Cat About Town Notorious Gossip

Johnny—"Pa, what's a kangaroo?"
Pa—"Just an attempt of nature to produce a safe pedestrian."

"Did you kill all the germs in the baby's milk?"
"My, yes; I ran it through the meat chopper twice."

"You sold me a car two weeks ago."
"Yes, sir."
"Tell me again all you said about it then. I'm getting discouraged."

She: "How is it you always patronize women dentists?"
He: "It's such a pleasure to hear a woman tell you to open your mouth instead of to shut it."

Donald: "I've no sympathy for the man that gets drunk every Saturday night."
Sandy: "Quite right Donald, but what's mair to the point; he doesn't need any sympathy."

A teacher extracts the following epigrammatic answer from a pupil's exercise-book:—
"Profanity is the name given to the bad language used by gentlemen. Among ordinary people it is called swearing."

MORE SERIOUS INCIDENTSBombs Explode In Palestine

Jerusalem, May 29.
After two days' respite from wearing steel helmets, this heavy gear has been resumed by police and troops following a number of serious incidents.
A bomb exploded during the night in the District Commission's offices at Haifa, damaging furniture and smashing windows. Several arrests were made.
Several bombs exploded in and around Acre.
A party of British constables had a narrow escape when patrolling by automobile south of Jaffa. They were fired upon from ambush, and two bullets passed through the car without hitting the occupants.

SOLDIERS STONED

A party of Royal Scots Fusiliers, guarding a post near Jaffa, were heavily stoned by Arabs. They opened fire and wounded two of their assailants.

Sniping and bomb-throwing is also prevalent in Jaffa, where the military and police were compelled to use Lewis guns to quell disorders.

A large band fired upon the military railway patrol at Ras-elain, from both sides of the line, but fled when the troops opened fire.

An Arab was severely wounded in Haifa through the explosion of a bomb which, it is believed, he was carrying.

A number of Arabic and Jewish newspapers have been suspended for spreading allegedly false information. —Reuter.

Rome, May 29.

The Abyssinian Police Force in Addis Ababa has now finally been dissolved by order of Marshal Graziani. MEMORIAL TO GERMAN SAILORSHistoric Ceremony At Kiel Bay*ADMIRAL PAYS HIGH TRIBUTE TO BRITISH NAVY

“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special.

Kiel, May 30.

Following the brilliant Naval review in his presence on Friday, Chancellor Hitler on Saturday solemnly dedicated a monument erected in the village of Laboe in Kiel Bay, to the memory of 34,386 German sailors who fell in the Great War.

The foundation stone for the monument was laid in 1927, thanks chiefly to the initiative of the late Admiral Scheer who commanded the German Fleet at the battle of Jutland, but its construction only commenced two years later.

The monument assumes the form of an imposing granite tower 244 feet high overlooking the sea.

The ceremony was timed to noon but as early as 8 a.m. detachments of the National Socialist party formations and the Naval Old Comrades Association were marching to Laboe to take up positions, while all roads leading to this quiet seaside resort were crowded with cars, motor lorries and vehicles of all kinds bringing thousands intent on witnessing the historic ceremony. At 8 a.m. all the ships in the Fleet were anchored in majestic lines outside the harbour and ran up full bunting, conspicuous among which was the old Imperial flag of war flown by every ship at the top mast by the special order of Hitler.

Shortly before noon the naval bands took up their positions in the circular court before the memorial while the trumpeters at the top of the tower blew fanfares to announce the approach of the Fuehrer.

ADMIRAL'S TRIBUTE

A few moments later accompanied by renewed fanfares, Hitler entered the court accompanied by War Minister Blomberg, Commander of the Fleet Admiral Raeder, and ministers Hess and Goebbels. After the memorial had been formally taken over by Commander Hinzmann in the name of the National Socialist Naval Old Comrades Association, Admiral Raeder delivered an address in which he paid high tribute to “those brave men and sailors whom fate pitted against us in honourable struggle wherever we crossed swords in open battle with the British Navy at Jutland, Coroneel and other places, we always learned to esteem an adversary who is racially and intellectually related to us and who, true to his glorious traditions, was only aiming like us to do his utmost in self-sacrificing fulfilment of duty towards his country.

Thus on this twentieth anniversary of the battle of Jutland when thoughts of the German Navy go out to their dead comrades they unite with the thoughts of the British Navy in common remembrance of all men who on both sides perished heroically amid the roar of guns in the greatest naval battle in history in obedience to the duty imposed on them by the honour of their respective flags.”

SCAPA FLOW

The speaker went on to recall that three years after the battle of Jutland, the same German Fleet which had won such fame at Jutland, appeared at Scapa Flow, robbed of all its weapons. The spirit of Jutland, Dogger Bank and other encounters seemed to have been extinguished. Then suddenly the redeeming act occurred—an act performed in the full consciousness of responsibility for the German honour. It was evidenced that “the spirit of Jutland and Falkland had been retained unbroken in those sections of the crews which had remained sound. The redeeming act of Scapa Flow had rescued the German Navy's honour.”

“My Fuehrer,” concluded Admiral Raeder, “from out of the darkness of the night you have led us and with us a truly thankful nation, upwards to the dawn of a brighter future. We who are gathered here in your presence in this solemn hour, before this national relic, swear new and unswerving loyalty and obedience.”

On the conclusion of Admiral Raeder's speech, Herr Hitler entered the court of honour of the monument and laid the first wreath there. The dead silence which followed was broken by the ship's mate sounding eight bells, whereupon a salute of 21 guns thundered out from Kiel Bay. —Transocean News Service.

OLD GIRLS MEETDIOCESAN GIRLS' SCHOOL

A highly successful annual dinner of the D.O.G.A. was held at the Diocesan Girls' School, on Friday night, which was attended by a large gathering of old girls from the school. Mrs. E. C. Fincher presided at the function, supported by Miss Anderson (Vice President), Miss M. Churn (Hon. Secretary) and Mrs. Jex (Hon. Treasurer).

At the official table in addition to the above were seated: Miss Wentworth (Acting Head-mistress), Mrs. Matthews, Miss Mooney, Miss Heang, and Mrs. E. C. Thomas. Present pupils in Class I as well as the teaching staff of the school were also present.

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH

The President, Mrs. Fincher said: Miss Wentworth, fellow members and friends:

Our D.O.G.A. dinner last year was such a success that the Committee decided to make it an annual event, so here we are once again this evening.

We are sorry Miss Sawyer is not with us tonight, but we sincerely hope that she is enjoying her well earned holiday.

I should, first of all, like to thank the staff for the use of this room. We must apologise for having done them out of their rightly-earned-a-tete dinner. Years ago several of us, as boarders, used to wonder, just overhead, what our mistresses were having for dinner. This was inevitably followed by a well deserved, and expected, whipping for wondering aloud!

It is gratifying to see some of our first batch of “old girls” here this evening. I should also like to extend a hearty welcome to our present girls, our guests this evening. The object of holding this dinner annually is to renew old acquaintances, and make new friendships with girls just leaving school, in the hope that they will become members of our Association. We hope that our object will be achieved tonight. For this reason we have not arranged a lengthy programme, but after dinner there will be mah jong for those who care to play. There will also be a “Tombola” for which three prizes will be given.

I should, if I may, like to ask our energetic Secretary to send a record of this gathering to our dear old Head, Miss Skipton, who always has our welfare at heart, and whose name will always be foremost in the annals of the D.G.S.

I now ask you to rise and drink to the health, wealth and prosperity of our Alma Mater, the School!

THE REPLY

Miss Wentworth said: It is a great pleasure to see our dining room so happily filled with girls who have passed through the school, and are interested to come back again and again.

I would like to thank you on behalf of the staff and Class I girls for extending your invitation to them, to be with you this evening.

If Miss Sawyer were here I am sure she would wish to show her appreciation of the great benefit the D.O.G.A. is to the school. We can always rely on you to help considerably at our bazaar, and other public functions.

I should like you to make use of this opportunity of meeting two new members of our staff, Miss Smith and Miss Steel.

I wish the D.O.G.A. a very successful season under the direction of the newly appointed committee.

EUPEN-MALMEDY'S FUTUREStatement By Rexist Leader

“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special.
Brussels, May 29.

The first reports of the statement to the press given by the leader of the new REX movement, Degrelle, omitted certain important declarations on Eupen-Malmedy, which are now being made public by the semi-official news agency “Belga.”

Degrelle said that the REX movement now had one German Deputy from Eupen-Malmedy in Parliament, who would make the first German speech and take the oath in German.

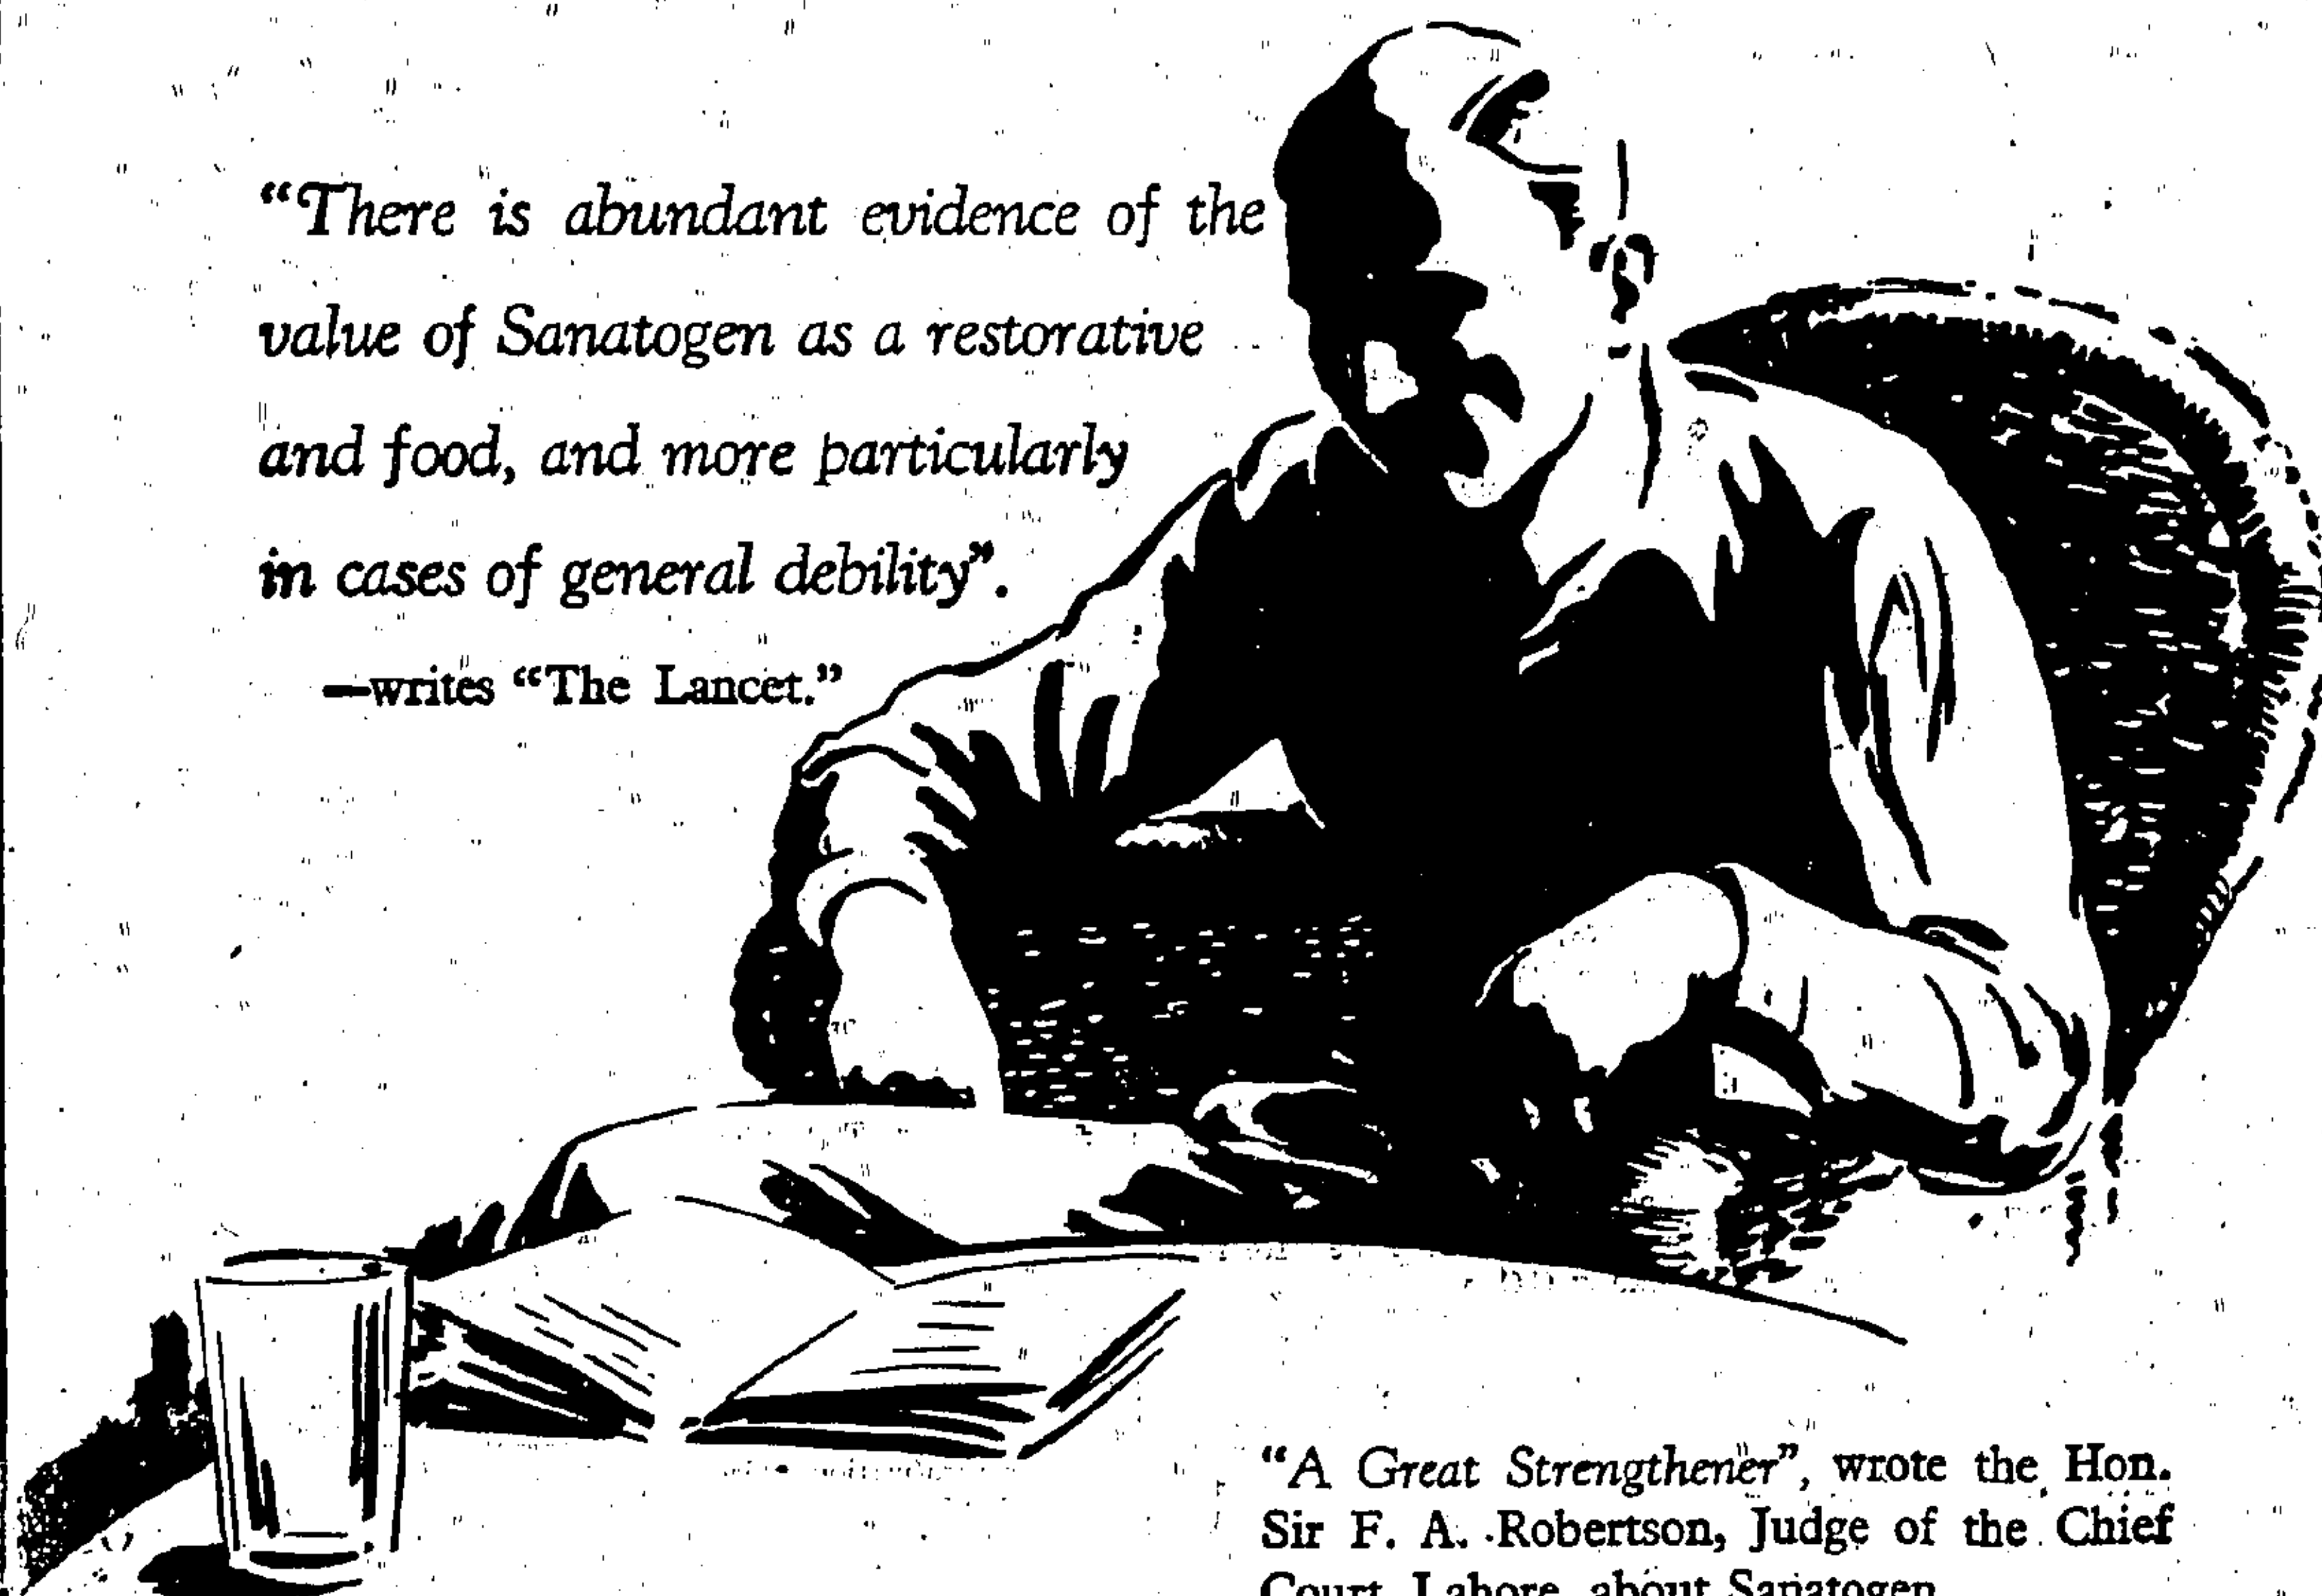

Degrelle said that one must preserve the ethnic character of Eupen-Malmedy and St. Vith, territories that had until 1918, always formed an integral part of the German Reich, but had to be ceded to Belgium in the Treaty of Versailles. It one could not do that, one would have to give Eupen-Malmedy back to Germany. —Transocean News Service.

Conquer that Weakness!

You can—with SANATOGEN

“There is abundant evidence of the value of Sanatogen as a restorative and food, and more particularly in cases of general debility.”

—writes “The Lancet.”

“A Great Strengthening,” wrote the Hon. Sir F. A. Robertson, Judge of the Chief Court, Lahore, about Sanatogen.

Remember that these letters—and thousands similar—were written by people who, before the use of Sanatogen, were just as sceptical as you may be of its tonic effects. But they decided to try Sanatogen and they got back their health and vigour.

“Sanatogen”—as a well-known London physician puts it—“goes straight to the core of well-being, namely, the cells—and builds these up into a permanent and solid fabric of health.”

Sanatogen will build up your Health lastingly. Over 25,000 physicians support this claim with their written commendation.

“Sanatogen gives a distinct restorative effect,” writes Sir Luke White.

“My nurses and myself were very much struck with my rapid improvement with Sanatogen,” writes the wife of a well-known doctor, Mrs. C. A. M. Phillips.

“A Wonder-worker” are the words in which Mr. Coulson Kernahan, the well-known author, describes Sanatogen.

SANATOGEN will always do you good and cannot possibly do harm.

METAL WORKERS' STRIKEConflicting Reports

“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special.
Paris, May 29.

The utterly conflicting reports about the development of the Metal Workers' Strike make it very difficult to state any exact facts. For instance there is no agreement whatever about the total number of men now idle, some estimates being lower, as low as 60,000, others as high as 300,000. One fact is certain, however, and that is that at least eight more large factories have joined the strike, including the entire Citroen in Paris, and Rozenbaum, Salmson and Fiat, as well as the power works, Adsthom.

Negotiations that were to have taken place in the Ministry of Labour on Thursday afternoon between the strikers and the employers, were suddenly adjourned. The reason seems to be that, on Thursday men agreed to the employers' demands that work should be resumed and the factory premises vacated, so that negotiations might go on in a normal atmosphere, but on Friday the men announced that they had decided they would not resume work except on new conditions. —Transocean News Service.

NEGUS GREETED

“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special.
Gibraltar, May 29.

The Negus arrived here on Friday on board the British cruiser “Capetown.” Since Haile Selassie travels incognito, no official reception was given, but he was nevertheless greeted by a representative of the Government and invited to an official luncheon at the Government House. —Transocean News Service.

GIANT LINER'S VOYAGEStowaway Found On Board

London, May 29.

Reuter's special correspondent aboard the Queen Mary reports that the ship has logged 747 miles in the last day. Her average speed was 29.88 knots per hour.

The Normandie's best distance on her Atlantic voyages was 744 miles in a day.

However, the Queen Mary's time cannot be called a record for, owing to the fact that the clocks were put back an hour the big ship actually had twenty-five hours in which to beat the French liner's mileages.

Captain Sir Edgar Britten declared himself completely satisfied with his ship's performance.

He is pleased, too, with the weather remarking: “We seamen say the Atlantic is nine months water and three months fog.”

A stowaway has been found aboard. He is Frank Gardener, 41-year-old Cardiff man, who was discovered after the ship sailed. He is working his passage as a kitchen hand. —Reuter.

MRS. MOLLISON HONOURED

London, May 29.

Mrs. Amy Mollison, famous woman flier has been awarded the Royal Aero Club's gold medal in recognition of her many record-breaking flights throughout the Empire.

Mrs. Mollison's last trying venture was to Capetown. She smashed the record for that flight in a solo dash from Lympne, and a few days later flew back to England and bettered Tommy Roe's time for that journey as well. —Reuter's Bulletin Service.

SHOWING TO-DAY
AT THE MAJESTIC

GREATEST COMEDY
OF THIS OR ANY OTHER YEAR

MORE FOOD NEEDED AS WAR STORE

London, May 8.
Britain requires, as a war reserve, according to calculations made in the current issue of the "British Medical Journal".
The same amount of wheat as we now use annually.
Over a million more tons of potatoes. Nearly a million more tons of onions or other vegetables.
Twenty-seven thousand tons more of butter or vitaminised margarine.
Over a million tons of cheese or other protein-yielding foodstuffs (meat, bacon, cured fish).
Some thousands of tons of dried milk.

THE IMMEDIATE NEED

"It follows, then," says the "British Medical Journal," "that if we were self-supporting in milk and its products, meat, potatoes, onions, other vegetables, oats and barley, the foodstuffs to be provided from outside sources would be wheat, maize and sugar. To these it would be safe to add a supply of grains suitable for sprouting."

"The immediate need is the storage of a sufficient supply of such foodstuffs as will in themselves provide a well-balanced 'emergency ration': the ultimate need, a need which should be satisfied as soon as possible, is to become self-supporting in those essential foodstuffs as possible."
"This we can do in so far as meat, milk, eggs and vegetables are concerned, and it would appear, in so far as oats and barley are concerned, if agriculture and labour are properly organised and advantage is taken of the knowledge science has provided in regard food production and to nutrition."

"The urgent necessity to be self-supporting in these things, both as a health measure in times of peace and as a defence measure in times of war, is extreme; an enormous responsibility rests upon the Government in regard to it."

"So long as there are in this country idle hands and idle, or relatively idle, or inefficiently exploited lands, so long is the Government failing to do what is best for the people, whether in times of peace or in times of war."

THOMSON PROUD OF VICTORY

Thrilling Final
With Ferrier

BRITISH AMATEUR GOLF TITLE

St. Andrews, May 30.
Hector Thomson, Walker Cup player and former Scottish champion won the British Open Amateur Golf title when he beat Jim Ferrier, former Shanghai player and Australian champion, by two up after a thrilling match.

The players were all square at the 9th and at the 18th Thomson established a lead of two strokes which won him the title.

Thomson missed a short putt at the 18th and Ferrier, with a fine approach shot, made a successful negotiation for a partial stymie and squared the match as a result.

The cards for the first 18 holes were as follows:—

Thomson:	5, 4, 3, 4, 5, 4, 4, 3, 5=37
Ferrier:	5, 3, 4, 4, 4, 4, 5, 4=37
Ferrier:	4, 5, 5, 4, 5, 3, 4, 3, 4=37
Ferrier:	4, 3, 3, 4, 7, 5, 5, 5, 4=40

AFTERNOON ROUND

A crowd of 5,000 people followed the afternoon's play when Thomson was 2 up at the end of the third nine holes, the cards being:—

Thomson:	4, 4, 4, 5, 3, 4, 3, 4=35
Ferrier:	4, 4, 4, 5, 4, 4, 4, 4=37

It was raining heavily and both players were making mistakes on the green especially Ferrier, who appeared to be fighting a losing battle, but his amazing recoveries enabled him to hold the more accurate Scot.

At the first hole Ferrier out-drove Thomson and had a much better approach shot, but the Scot scrambled a half. The Australian was trapped in a bunker just in front of the green at the third, but made a brilliant recovery. At the fourth he missed a two-yard putt. Thomson then missed a three-foot putt after hitting a spectator.

In heavy rain, Thomson holed a four-yard putt at the sixth. The Australian failed to sink a putt from two feet at the eighth and at the ninth recovered well from the rough to halve the hole, being 2 down at the turn.

The cards over the last nine holes were as follows:—

Thomson:	4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 5, 3=36
Ferrier:	4, 3, 4, 4, 5, 4, 4, 4=36

WIN APPLAUDED

Thomson's approach shots and putting improved greatly during the last nine holes. At the 36th he laid his approach shot dead to the pin and holed out to become victor amid terrific applause.

At the 11th Thomson hit the top of the bunker but he sank a three-yard putt at the 12th. Ferrier almost had a two at the 14th, but the Scot made a wonderful pitch shot stone dead. At the 15th both missed two-yard putts and at the 16th Thomson was bunkered, but holed a three-yarder. At the 17th Thomson's second shot was short and over-ran the green on the run-up. At the 18th Thomson's approach shot was six yards from the pin and he holed out for a great win.

JOLLY GOOD MATCH

Ferrier, interviewed after the match by Reuter, said: "It was a jolly good match and I only wish that some of my putts had gone down."

Thomson said: "It was all terribly exciting. I could never be sure of winning, even when I drove to the last green. I am delighted that I have won for Scotland a title that has evaded us for so long."

Ferrier told Reuter that he will be returning to Australia in four or five weeks' time to defend his title. He will be returning via America, but does not expect to play much golf there.—

Inspectors Dorling And Hoare Leave For Home

Among the passengers of the S.S. Chitral which left the Colony for Home on Saturday, were two well-known pensioned officers of the Hong Kong Police Force, ex-Inspectors A.J.W. Dorling and F. Hoare.

Delective Inspector Arthur James William Dorling was appointed to the local Force from England on November 15, 1913, and arrived in the Colony on December 27 of the same year to take up his duties as a Police Constable. Nine years later, on July 15, 1922, he was promoted to Police Sergeant, and became Sub-Inspector on October 1, 1925. For several years past, until his retirement on January 20, 1936, he was in charge of the Criminal Investigation Department, Kowloon. During his service he was commended on no fewer than seven occasions.

Born on April 30, 1886, Inspector Hoare was appointed Police Constable on January 9, 1914, and eight years later was promoted to Crown Sergeant. In 1925, he attained the rank of Sub-Inspector, and was promoted to Inspector on August 31, 1933. During the last five years he has been Divisional Inspector of the New Territories, North.

OBITUARY

Sir Philip Nash

London, May 2.
Sir Philip Nash, who was Deputy Director General of Transportation to the British Expeditionary Force in France and later Inspector General of Transportation, died in London yesterday, aged 61. He had been suffering from pneumonia since Sunday.

Early in his career Sir Philip was associated with railways in India, and in 1915 he was the chief locomotive engineer of the East India Railway. On his return to England Mr. Lloyd George induced him to assist in war work.

After the war he was Director General of Traffic in England under the Ministry of Transport. He resigned in 1921 and became chairman of the Metropolitan-Vickers Electrical Company; when in April, 1928, that firm, the British Thomson-Houston, Edison, Swan Electric, and Ferguson Patent companies merged into Associated Electrical Industries, Ltd., he was made managing director of the great combine, from which he resigned in 1932.

LORD WILLINGDON'S HONOUR

London, May 13.

It was believed that Lord Willingdon would be made a Knight of the Garter on his return from India, particularly as there are at present two vacancies in the Order. But he has been made a Marquess instead, as Lord Reading was on completion of his viceroyalty.

Lord Halifax (then Lord Irwin) became a Knight of the Garter. So did Lord Hardinge. Both represent ancient noble families, to which the knighthood is normally conferred.

Lord Litchgow, on his completing his term of office, is not likely to receive a step up in the peerage. The custom now is to confer no new dukedoms except on members of the Royal Family; a decision which caused great disappointment to Lord Curzon. Lord Litchgow, if the King chose to honour him, would, therefore, presumably become a Knight of the Garter.

"TROUBLE IN PARADISE"

ACTION BY THE ADMIRALTY WAIVED

London, May 12.

The Admiralty have decided to make no claim against the Chinese Government in connection with the salvage of the P. and O. liner Ranpura, which ran aground while carrying art treasures worth £10,000,000.

The Ranpura was saved by Admiralty tugs in Gibraltar Bay, and the question of a claim in law against the Chinese Government, the owners of the treasures, has been discussed.

In the salvage work the Admiralty tanker Thermol released oil fuel from the Ranpura's tanks, and two tugs the Rambler and the Rollicker, with the help of the mooring lighter Moorhill, refloated the liner.

The Ranpura continued the voyage with the art treasures intact. Under maritime law the owners of the salvaged vessel and the owners of the cargo on board can be called on to bear the salvage costs in proportion to the value of their goods, but the Admiralty, having reviewed all the circumstances, does not intend to take any further action.

"Colleen," Warner Bros. latest musical film closes to-day at the Queen's Theatre with an all star cast including Dick Powell, Ruby Keeler, Jack Oakie, Joan Blondell, Hugh Herbert, Louise Fazenda and a score of other principals as well as a couple of hundred chorus beauties and dancing youths.

Robert Lord, has provided a real plot for this musical comedy, which is packed with delightful and hilarious fun as well as romance and some dramatic moments.

As a spectacle, the picture presents two unique and unusual specialty numbers staged by Bobby Connolly, famous dance director in which scores of beautiful girls participate. One is staged aboard an ocean liner, with everyone from the captain to the crew as well as the passengers doing a dance rhythm. The other takes place in a modiste shop in which a veritable style show is featured.

Three original catchy songs were written for the production by the famous composers, Harry Warren and Al Dubin. Powell sings two of these one with Keeler, while the other, a comedy number, is sung by Miss Blondell and Oakie.

Miss Keeler goes through her famous tap steps, some alone, and also with Paul Draper, the Broadway dancing wizard, who was taken to Hollywood especially for this production.

Others in the cast include Marie Wilson, Luis Alberni, Hobart Cavanaugh, Berton Churchill, J. M. Kerrigan, Spencer Charters, Addison Richards, Mary Treen and Charles Coleman.

BOULDER DAM

Due to the fact that several technical experts were employed, the Las Vegas gambling house scenes photographed for "Boulder Dam," the Warner Bros picture which opens to-morrow at the Queen's Theatre were correct to the last poker chip.

During the construction of Boulder Dam, the town of Las Vegas, Nevada, was admittedly a cross between the rip-roaring town of Tombstone, Arizona, during its heyday, and the famous casino at Monte Carlo. Gambling was "wide open," and the various clubs catering to dam workers were nearly always filled to capacity.

In as much as the picture has Boulder Dam as its background, several of the more important sequences take place in a replica of one of these clubs. Included in the list of extra men and bit players obtained for the picture were fourteen men who held jobs in Las Vegas during the construction on the dam. All these men acted as voluntary technical advisors on the picture, and their "tips" to Director Frank MacDonald were of great assistance in the difficult sequences relating to gambling as it is practiced in a rough and ready construction town.

"Boulder Dam" is a drama of love and heroism based on the story by Dan W. Templin. The cast includes Ross Alexander, Patricia Ellis, Lyle Talbot, Henry O'Neill, Eddie Acuff, Egon Brecher and scores of others. The screen play is by Sy Bartlett and Ralph Block.

"LUCIA" SEXTETTE AT CHARITY CONCERT

Varied Programme At Club de Recreio To-morrow

The popular and melodious sextette from "Lucia di Lammermoor" is one of the items on the programme for the Club de Recreio concert to-morrow night. Funds are to be used for the "Caixa Escolar," for the education of poor Portuguese boys.

The sextette, which will be accompanied by orchestra, will be rendered by Mrs. Felicia Fernandes, Miss Edwina Rogers and Messrs. J. Mackay, A. J. Rodrigues Jun., Carlos Chan and Jose d'Almeida. Another operatic item will be by Mr. A. J. Rodrigues who will sing the well-known tenor arias, "E lucevan le stelle" from "La Tosca" and "Vesti la giubba" from "Pagliacci." Miss Edwina Rogers, coloratura, will also sing Pailone's "Barcarole" and "Charmant Oiseau" from David's "Perle du Bresil."

The entertainment has been arranged by Mlle. Maria Margarida Gomes. There will be no admission fee but donations towards the funds will be gratefully received at the entrance to the Club de Recreio.

VARIED PROGRAMME

The programme is a varied one, including vocal and instrumental items, a one-act comedy, traditional Portuguese songs and other novelties.

A good orchestra will take part and a juvenile band will render a selection from "Maritana."

"PROFESSIONAL SOLDIER"

AT THE KING'S AND ALHAMBRA

When one recalls that Victor McLaglen taught Jack Johnson about one year after he had defeated Tommy Burns for the heavyweight Championship of the world, one can the more appreciate the first ten minutes of "Professional Soldier," now showing at the King's and Alhambra Theatres. The blustering introduction to the picture precedes moments of great pathos, comedy of situation, and gripping action, involving several factions who hope to secure control of a Ruritanian country by forcing the abdication of the boy King Peter, as played by Freddie Bartholomew. A large cast, augmented by troops and peasantry, are only minor foils to the robust manner of Col. Donovan (McLaglen) and the quaintly royal demeanour of the youthful actor. Let it suffice that the whole plot is built round these two players, notwithstanding the presence of such leaders as Michael Whalen, Lumsden Hare, C. Henry Gordon, Pedro de Cordoba, Miss Gloria Stuart, and Miss Constance Collier. Each contributes a necessary, but very minor characterization.

In recommending this picture without reservation, even to those who prefer to have the American atmosphere less dominant, it is indicated that potential spectators should be on the alert to "catch" the crack game between king and lieutenant, the Dillinger by-play, and the machinegun episodes.

ARMSTRONG WHITWORTH SECURITIES

London, May 9.

While the story told by the latest report of Armstrong Whitworth Securities Company is again one of heavy losses the figures indicate a definite improvement on those contained in the previous accounts. The subsidiary companies incurred trading losses last year (after providing for depreciation of plant and machinery) amounting to £131,659, which compares with £283,343; in other words, these companies did better to the extent of over £150,000. The net result shown by the holding company, after providing for Debenture Interest, was a loss of £18,325, against a loss for 1934 of over £40,000. These latest results raise the accumulated debit balance at profit and loss in the accounts of the holding company to the formidable total of £2,934,783, but the outlook is certainly more promising than it used to be.

WITNESSES TELL OF OLD CUSTOMS

Chinese Marriages Described When Kit Fat Wife Sues Husband

Interesting evidence regarding Chinese marriage customs was given at the Central Police Court on Saturday when Mr. S. F. Balfour resumed the hearing of an action brought by a kit-fat wife against her husband.

Chan Hoi-pong was summoned by his kit-fat wife, Ng Wing-yee, who alleged persistent cruelty to herself and two children, aged two years and six months. She also asked for custody of the children and maintenance.

Mr. C. A. Sutherland Ross appeared for defendant and Mr. D. S. Curtis for complainant.

At the first hearing Mr. Balfour ordered the husband to pay $12 a week to the wife.

On Saturday interesting evidence of the Chinese customs in these marriages was heard.

Choi Sum-kwai gave evidence of negotiations instigated by her elder sister, defendant's then kit-fat wife, as to approaching Ng with the idea of her becoming the concubine of the defendant. Ng however asked for the title of a legal wife and her mother asked for $1,000, which she received.

SERVED TEA

Choi stated that later at a dinner Ng had served certain members of the party with tea and then she and witness' eldest sister had bowed to each other.

Sung Tsing-kam, who said he was Kung Sang of the Tsing Dynasty (a Licensate of the Dynasty), Vice-Consul of Honolulu from 1908 to 1910, legal assistant in the Yui Ping and Ching Hoi districts from 1899 to 1901, had given expert evidence before Mr. Justice Wood in 1926, was called by Mr. Ross to give expert evidence regarding Chinese customs.

To Mr. Curtis, Sung said his evidence before Mr. Justice Wood had not been accepted. It had also been refused by Mr. Justice MacGregor.

Sung stated that under the old law the taking of a second wife was illegal and a concubine could not be raised to the status of a real wife. Complainant married defendant while the first wife was living and therefore could not be regarded as either a "Tin Fong" (a wife filling the place of another) or a "Kit-fat" wife.

BRIDE'S PRESENTS

Sung explained that usually at the wedding the bridegroom had to send presents and money to the bride's family. This money, called betrothal money, ranged from $24 (taels in the old days) to $240 or $300. If the girl bought was a concubine then the money was called "Sun Ga," or personal price, which meant that the girl was bought.

Mr. Curtis said that with regard to the handing of the marriage documents to the girl the man was stopped from denying that the girl was his "Kit-fat" wife. Complainant had denied knowledge of the previous wife. If she had married knowing of this wife she would have had no remedy.

"VERITABLE SHREW"

Mr. Ross said if anything, it was the woman herself who has been cruel to her husband. She had a violent temper and was a veritable shrew. She had pulled his hair in public and because of the one occasion he had endeavoured to restrain her he was charged with persistent cruelty.

"A wife must be a wife in all respects before she can claim maintenance," concluded Mr. Ross. "That is one of the few rights left to us unfortunate men."

The case was adjourned to June 8.

PENSION LAW

AMENDMENT GAZETTED

The "Gazette" contains the draft of an Ordinance to amend further the law relating to pensions.

It is explained that Clause 2 of this Bill when enacted will repeal sub-section (2) of section 5 of the principal Ordinance, No. 21 of 1932, which provided that no officer would be granted a pension, gratuity or other allowance without a certificate from an appropriate superior officer to the effect that he has discharged the duties of his office with such diligence and fidelity as to justify the grant.

That provision which is to be found in the majority of Colonial Pension laws was derived from section 8 of the Superannuation Act, 1859, (22 Vict. c. 26), which was repealed recently by section 5 of the Superannuation Act, 1935 (25 and 26 Geo. 5. c. 23). A corresponding repeal in Colonial legislation has been requested by the Secretary of State in paragraph 7 of his circular despatch of the 4th January, 1936.

The effect of the repeal will be that the position will then be governed by the further provision, which is contained in section 5 (3) of the principal Ordinance, that where it is established to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council that an officer has been guilty of negligence, irregularity or misconduct, the pension, gratuity or other allowance may be reduced or altogether withheld.

Clause 3 will delete from section 8 of the principal Ordinance the reference to the approval of the Secretary of State, which deletion was suggested in paragraph 8 of the Circular despatch.

The Secretary of State wishes it to be understood that the practice of submitting such withholdings or reductions to him for approval shall be continued in the case of officers appointed by him or whose appointments are subject to his general or special approval, but that it will be unnecessary to continue it in the case of subordinate local officials who are appointed by the Colonial Government.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Chan Wing-kit, was in a gown of white lace and carried a bouquet of white gardenias. She was attended by Miss Rose Marie Tong who was dressed in pale violet organdie with a posy of pink carnations.

Mr. Ong Ewe-hin was best man and Miss Yip Chor-hang, in a long gown of golden satin, acted as flower girl. She carried a sheaf of orange gladioli. Master Yip Tai-tak, in red and white satin, was the page boy.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Hong Kong Hotel roof garden and a ceremonial dinner at the Kwong Chau restaurant followed.

KING'S BIRTHDAY PARADE

SCHEDULED
THIS YEAR

Elaborate Scale

The first parade of the new reign, the annual turn out for H.M. the King's Birthday this year will be on a more elaborate scale than usual, and is scheduled to take place on June 23 at 6 p.m. at Happy Valley.

This will be the first occasion that a parade will be held in the evening, and is a wise move on the part of the authorities responsible. In previous years it was not an uncommon sight to see some of the men overcome by the intense heat contracted while on the March.

A pleasant innovation, at the express command of H.E. The Governor of Hong Kong, Sir Andrew Caldecott, will be the participation of members of the Hong Kong Police Force, which will attend in detachments of 30 files.

The following forces will take part:—

Royal Marines, Companies each of 30 files.

Royal Artillery, 8th Heavy and 5th Anti-Aircraft Brigade, each battery providing 30 files.

Royal Engineers, Fortress Royal Engineers, each Company providing 66 files (parading in half companies each of 22 files).

Infantry, All British Battalions, each company providing 60 files.

Hong Kong Brigade, H.K.S. R.A., Each battery providing 30 files.

R.A.S.C., One company of 15 files.

R.A.O.C., One section of 15 files.

FIREARMS FOUND ON BOAT

GAOL TERM IMPOSED

A brand new automatic pistol and a revolver, together with 200 rounds of ammunition seized by the police during a boat to boat search in the Yau Ma Tei Typhoon Shelter were exhibited when Wong Yee, 47, married woman, of boat No. 4785A was charged before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court with unlawful possession of firearms.

Wong said that the firearms and ammunition had been deposited on her boat by an unknown man with instructions that they would be called for later.

Detective Sergeant Kinnear of the Water Police, said that on the night of May 25, Sergeant Mauer carried out a boat to boat search in the typhoon shelter. Sergeant Mauer went to one side of the shelter while the seamen covered the opposite side. The European police officer stopped defendant's craft and she at once "dived in" a wooden box and extracted a bag which she attempted to throw overboard. She was stopped by a seaman. In this bag was found the contraband ammunition and firearms.

The woman told the Police that she had obtained them from a known man, but in spite of every facility offered by the authorities, she refused to give any assistance in finding the man.

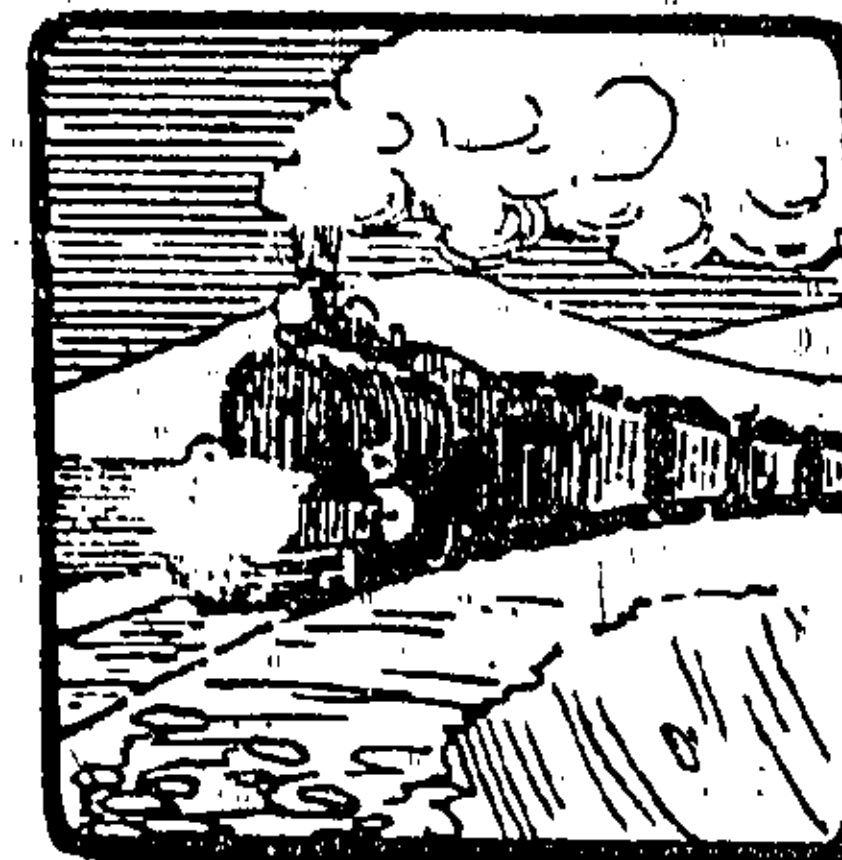

Sergeant Kinnear said that the woman did not even know where her husband was. The boat which was registered in Aberdeen was not in her own name.

Sentence of twelve months' imprisonment was imposed.

Co., had been stolen from his stall. On May 28 the defendant was arrested while stealing again and he confessed to the stealing of the receipt and the taking of the pork from the Storage Co.

A CHANCE GIVEN

TO A WAYWARD
GIRL

Theft of money and jewellery valued at $39, of which $25 worth had been recovered, led to the appearance before Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy of a 22 year old spinster, Yu Yee Mui, of No. 2 Shanghai Street, ground floor charged with larceny from a girl friend named Leung Kwan Yuk, aged 18 years, at No. 24 Hankow Road, third floor.

Defendant was bound over in $10 to be of good behaviour for six months.

Detective Sergeant Davies, of the Police said that the two girls were friends. Yu paid almost daily visits to the complainant's flat. At 2 p.m. on May 27 Leung went to the Water Police and reported the loss of jewellery and money, which included two gold rings. She said that she suspected her friend. The next day while Leung was walking in Shanghai Street near Nelson Street, she saw the defendant and stopped her. She accused the latter of stealing her jewellery, and Yu admitted the theft. Both went to the Yau Ma Tei Station where the case was transferred to the Water Police.

One of the rings was pawned for $2.50 and had been recovered. The other ring, according to Yu had given to her sister. The Police together with the accused visited this girl, but she denied all knowledge of the ring.

In answer to the Bench, Yu said that the ring had "been given to a friend, who was afraid to admit this to the Police."

Sergeant Davies: She is referring to her sister.

Sergeant Davies said that the accused had spent a night at the Wo Ping Hotel. "I have an idea she gave it to some boy friend!"

When defendant was searched at the station, $1.15 was found in her possession.

In binding defendant over in the sum of $10, the Magistrate ordered that the $1.15 be returned to complainant.

ESTATE DUTY ORDINANCE

INCREASE
FORESHADOWED

The "Gazette" contains the draft of an Ordinance to amend the Estate Duty Ordinance of 1932.

The object of this Bill is to make an increase in the rates of Estate payable in the case of persons dying on or after the 1st July, 1936. The estates of persons dying before that date are to be dealt with under the existing First and Second Schedules to the principal Ordinance.

To carry out this object, clause 2 of the Bill substitutes a new definition for "applicable Schedule" and clause 4 adds a new Third Schedule.

Clause 3 of the Bill will repeal the present Third Schedule, which provided a Table for use in the calculation of reversionary interests which is not required, as well as section 29 of the principal Ordinance which related to it.

The new Third Schedule sets out a new table of duty. This ranges from 1 per cent. on estates between $500 and $5,000 to 20 per cent. on estates of over $20,000,000.

Ho-tung, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kotewall, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stanton, Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Canaval, Mr. and Mrs. D. Forbes and Jan, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Staley, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. KEEN RACING AT THE VALLEY

Upsets Few And Far Between

MODERATE DIVIDENDS

Although several upsets were registered at the First Day races of the Sixth Extra Race Meeting of the Hong Kong Jockey Club held on Saturday afternoon, not many appreciable dividends were returned with the exception of Racing Heart's win in the Victoria Park Handicap which returned $50.60 to each of its 191 successful backers. The other dividends were moderate and the cash sweep dividends were all below the usual average. Racing Heart and King's Sceptre's combination was responsible for the 30 successful backers of the Daily Double to receive $128.40 each.

Attendance on the whole was only moderate which was partly responsible for the state of the dividends. The rain earlier in the day helped to make the track easy going, and although no records were broken several close finishes were witnessed.

The day's racing provided Mr. W. H. Choy, a win which enabled him to graduate from the Novices' class. Riding honours were evenly divided. Mr. H. C. Pih heads the winning list with two firsts, one second and two thirds, while Mr. S. L. Liang had two firsts and a third. Mr. N. Deltz had one first, one second and two thirds, Messrs. I. C. Harris and D. Black each had one first and a second and Mr. B. A. Proulx had a first and a third.

ANOTHER JOCKEY GRADUATES

MAY HANDICAP

After the heavy showers in the morning the sun helped to dry up the course somewhat, and by the time the first race was scheduled to be run attendance was moderate. Honeycomb Eve which was entered was scratched at the last moment leaving only four ponies for the race with Royal Scot being made the favourite. It was a great race as Oak Bay and Gladiator took the lead followed by Royal Scot and Soldier of Britain. At the half mile post the leaders maintained their positions with Soldier of Britain moving up to the third place. The last quarter saw a great tussle as Royal Scot and Soldier of Britain came up strongly. A neck to neck race ensued on the stretch and Soldier of Britain just nosed out the favourite by a short head. Gladiator was the same distance behind Royal Scot.

WARWICK FARM HANDICAP "A" CLASS

Derby Day set the pace with a good start followed by Bobnik Star. Electron, Double Finesse and Australian Boy were in the rear. There were no changes in the positions until the last quarter when Mr. Deltz on Electron spurred to challenge the leader strongly. It was a great race, and Mr. Deltz's jockeyship was rewarded when he brought Electron home a length and a half ahead of Derby Day. The time was only 1/5 of a second behind the record.

SHATIN HANDICAP "D" CLASS

Ten ponies faced the starter. Lemberg took the lead with Tyne and Daylight Eve in the rear. Foxbridge being somewhat left behind. At the half mile post Plain View came up to the second position with Daylight Eve in the lead. On the stretch Plain View shot out and about 150 yds. from the end Foxbridge challenged strongly but to no avail and was content with second place with Seventeenth of September, third.

CUSTOMS HANDICAP "C" CLASS

Monoplane was badly left behind as Harvest View took the lead followed by King's Bounty and Pontiac Bay. The race was between these three ponies right from the start and these positions were maintained till the last furlong when Pontiac Bay came up to challenge the leader. It was a close tussle but Harvest View was able to stay the pace and won by a short head with King's Bounty third.

VICTORIA PARK HANDICAP "B" CLASS

A surprise greeted punters when Perfect Day after being badly left at the start regained the lost ground and to romp home to gain second place. This race was featured by the masterly riding of Racing Heart by Mr. I. C. Harris who after taking the lead at the half mile post came in winner by a head while Centre Court obtained the third place. This was the first major upset of the day. The winner paid $50.80 for a win to its 191 backers each. Incidentally this race was the first leg of the Daily Double.

LEAD MINE HANDICAP "B" CLASS

A thrilling finish and a thrilling race was witnessed when Mistake Bay came in first ahead of Cyclamen Bay with Sadko taking the third place. King's Justice and King's Jubilee led the field with Mistake Bay in the third position. Round the last quarter the ponies were bunched together, and several ponies including Sadko were jammed. Try as the ponies and jockeys did they were unable to get out of the jam and eventually about 50 yards more to go Sadko did get out and gave the first two ponies a good race but to no avail.

CUSTOMS HANDICAP "C" CLASS

The second leg of the Daily Double—five furlongs dash—attracted 10 entries. Flybynight dashed off with King's Sceptre second. It was not long when Amberley came up and on the home stretch Ythan gave King's Sceptre a good race to snatch second place from Amberley. King's Sceptre being a length ahead of Ythan.

SHATIN HANDICAP "D" CLASS

The second last race attracted the biggest field of the day—15 entries. Another surprise was created by Mr. Pih when he piloted Humber home ahead of a close field with Burgomaster second and Valley View third. It was a very open race from the start as Popular Star took the lead. It was on the home stretch that the first three ponies came out to the open and Mr. Pih ably carried his pony through.

STONECUTTERS PLATE

The Novices' Race brought the day's programme to a close. Ten entries accepted. Coot was left behind as Heriot took the lead. It was a struggle between Ocean View and Cassius and Mr. W. H. Choy on Ocean View romped home ahead of Cassius. Heriot was third. By this victory Mr. W. H. Choy left the Novices' Class.

He was a native of Hang How. Inspector R. W. Chester-Woods for the prosecution made an application for a week's formal remand, which was granted. He said that there was a possibility that there had been a wrong banishment order.

CHILD ENTICED AWAY

Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday in a case in which an earth cooler, named Lau Nam, 30, was charged with enticing a child aged 6 years of age away from her father Yeung Shek, at Au Piu Leung village on May 4. Detective Sergeant Mann said that the defendant was employed in the company's laboratory for the past nine or ten months at a wage of $25 a month. A few months ago he was suspected of embezzling $40 and was dismissed. Going through the books the complainant found that a certain firm had not paid its account for March though its April account was paid. Defendant when arrested admitted receiving the money which was not handed over. Mr. Glen Allen said that defendant had good references and a good character. The case was remanded for 72 hours.

WOMEN IN DIPLOMACY

The progressive admission of women in recent years to a large number of occupations formerly closed to them, by law or custom has instilled in some minds the hope of removing every sex barrier from all fields of human activity. In deference to this far from universal aspiration, a Committee was appointed some time ago to inquire into the desirability of admitting women to the Diplomatic and Consular Services. The Committee, in a majority report, have now declared against such admission, and their view has been endorsed by the Government for reasons which lack nothing in cogency. These reasons are, in effect, that in many countries the innovation would not be welcomed and would, therefore, place the woman diplomat under a disadvantage; that the retention of women in the Diplomatic Service after marriage would create insuperable difficulties, and that the number of available posts is so small (about 550 in the two Services) as to be incapable of affecting the general question of the employment of women. Of the two minority reports one proposed a seven years' trial period, which the Government, in our view rightly, rejected as impracticable, while the other (signed by the two women members) advocated eligibility on equal terms for both sexes.

The decisive issue, as it seems to us, turns on the balance of advantage or disadvantage which would accrue to the State and to the efficiency of the Services by the proposed reform. Of the alleged advantages the women's minority report mentions only two. One is that the inclusion of women would "widen the field of selection." It is, then, contended that talent is so rare as to be insufficient to provide 550 capable men for the Diplomatic and Consular Services? The second is that "there are bound to be areas where a woman's specific knowledge could be used with advantage to British trade." That may be conceivable, but it is, to say the least, highly problematical. In any case, could either or both of these alleged advantages possibly outweigh the disadvantage of retirement on marriage, which even the minority report admits to be necessary? The whole demand is based, in our view, on false conceptions of "equality" now current. Equality between the sexes does not imply that both are equally fitted for all occupations. Is it suggested that women should man the Navy or how coal? Or that womanhood is disparaged by its exclusion from these occupations? Surely women already make a far more valuable contribution to diplomacy in their capacity as wives or daughters of Ambassadors than would ever be possible if they were Ambassadors themselves. And, in fine, we believe with the majority report that the greater part of British womanhood would not wish to see this country represented abroad by women.

MR. CHOW LOU'S
STATEMENT

Japan Denounced

Manila, May 30. Mr. Chow Lou, Chancellor of Sun Yat-sen University, arrived this morning by the m.v. Victoria on the way to Germany to attend the 550th anniversary of the foundation of Heidelberg University and also the Olympic Games, after which he is proceeding to England.

He declared on arrival that Japan was out to dominate China, using force, bluff and smuggling to achieve that end. Any foreign Powers assisting China would be regarded as China's friends.

Mr. Chow told Reuters that there was no truth in the Tokyo story that the gulf between Nanking and Canton was widening. Asked whether Mr. Hu Han-min's death would result in closer relations between Nanking and Canton, he said: "That is to be expected."

CRAWFORD BEATEN

Philadelphia, May 30. In the Davis Cup American Zone final, Adrian Quist (Australia) beat W. L. Allison (America) 6-3, 5-7, 6-4, 6-1.

The Australian played with great strategy and kept Allison on the baseline in order to prevent him advancing to the net where the American is most deadly. Allison was leading 5-2 in the second set when Quist drew up to 5-5. There were three love games.

Quist concentrated on his backhand in the rest of the match and raced through the first five games in the final set in ten minutes.

Donald Budge (America) beat Jack Crawford (Australia) 6-2, 6-3, 4-6, 1-6, 13-11. After two all Budge put on pressure and almost blasted Crawford from the court with blistering low forehanders.

Crawford was at Budge's mercy in the second set and whenever he was pressed the Australian played a more steady game.

In the third set Crawford was content to remain on the baseline, forcing Budge to commit errors. He carried on these tactics in the fourth set, but Budge's youthful stamina finally nipped the bud in several efforts on the part of Crawford to stage a comeback.

Queen Mary Forced

London, May 31.

Reuters' correspondent aboard the liner Queen Mary reports that the fog has thickened and visibility is practically nil.

Six men are keeping a sharp lookout on the bridge, including the Commander, Sir Edgar Britten.

A later message says that the fog is lifting and heavy rain is falling. A stiff breeze has sprung up and the siren is only sounding intermittently. The vessel is, increasing speed and it is estimated that she is now doing just over twenty knots.

FORGING AHEAD

London, May 31.

Reuters' correspondent on the Queen Mary states that the fog has now entirely dispersed and the vessel is forging ahead with a moderate sea and leaden sky.

EARLIER REPORT

London, May 30.

A record run of 766 miles was made by the Queen Mary on the second day for the twenty five hours ended at noon. The Queen Mary's hopes of a record are somewhat lessening owing to entry of a bank of fog which forced her to reduce to about half the speed. The mist has thickened and visibility is only two hundred yards.

While the film showing the launching of the Queen Mary was being welcomed by the passengers aboard, hooters on the screen mingled with the vessel's own siren sounding continuously.

If Gossip We Must

(BY "ONLOOKER")

The Races on Saturday were not attended by a very large crowd possibly owing to the downpour of rain during the morning. It was very hot and steamy there and very little breeze—consequently most people stayed in the boxes during the afternoon trying to keep cool. H.E. The Governor was there also Col. Harrison in one of those fashionable green hats. Col. Willson I saw with Mrs. Perse who was in pale blue. The Weldons were there watching their Strathallan run and we were sorry not to see it get a place—but we wish them good luck for the next time. Mrs. Edwards Jones in navy and white with a most attractive halo hat of navy was there with the Weldons. She is back in Hong Kong just for a short holiday. Another attractive person there was Mrs. Beck—looking so cool and nice in pale pink linen with touches of brown. Mrs. Lock and Mrs. Sheldon I saw together—both well turned out. Gunners were well in evidence. I am sorry to see that Major Currie is in the wars again—this time it is his arm. Mrs. Carrington Sykes in white with navy spent most of her time in the Gunner's Box. Mrs. Knox in printed crepe—came with her husband—another couple I saw was Lt. Commander and Mrs. McCoy the latter in green and white. The band of the Ulster Rifles played during the afternoon and for those keen on racing don't miss Monday's Meeting as it will be the last meeting of the season.

The East Lancashire Regiment had a very large and most successful cocktail party last week. They were lucky having a fine night with so much rain about and were able to hold their party outside which is always so nice. All the "Party Regulars" seemed to be there and everybody enjoying themselves immensely. Mrs. Alexander was most striking and attractive in powder blue with a hat to match—her husband was there too in his usual good form. The Campbells I saw in the distance also the Grunes. Pretty Mrs. Russell in a linen suit of blue and her hat of the same colour had a party of friends there. Mrs. Jeffries in Royal blue georgette was later to be seen dancing at the Peninsula Hotel. Mrs. Lock and her husband arrived with Mr. Sheldon—Mrs. Lock's dress being of a harlequin effect which suited her well.

CANTON MORE FAR

The residents of Canton seem to have taken the opportunity of the Whitening Holidays to come to Hong Kong for the week-end. Amongst those we noticed bathing at Repulse Bay on Sunday afternoon were Doctor Betz, the German Vice-Consul and Mr. Rassmussen.

the Swedish Vice-Consul who, as well as being a popular member of the foreign community of Shamen is also a notable and an oarsman.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Ball gave a most enjoyable cocktail party in the Bailey's charming flat over the National City Bank in honour of Mr. Starrett at which most of the foreign residents who remained in Shamen over the week-end were present.

During the past week the Mui Tsai Commission paid an informal visit to Canton and were entertained by Mr. Herbert Phillips, C.M.G., H.M. Consul General. After a sightseeing trip, during the morning a most pleasant luncheon party was held by Mr. Phillips at which Mr. David Fraser, the "Times" Correspondent, the Rev. Mr. Jenkins who has been in Canton for 38 years, and Mr. Staples-Smith, also a very old resident of Canton, and many others were present.

MISSION WORK AMONG WOMEN IN CHINA

Communist Hindrance

London, May 13.

Addresses dealing with present-day conditions in the mission field in China were given by 10 missionaries, who have recently returned, at the annual meetings of the China Inland Mission, held yesterday at the Central Hall Westminster.

The annual report, to which reference was made by the chairman, the Rev. D. H. Aldis, stated that the actual number of centres in which the missionaries of the society were at work increased during the year from 344 to 359; and additional stations were opened in 11 provinces. Meanwhile the total number of workers decreased from 1,368 to 1,359. The reason why gains and losses (through death or retirement) did not at least balance was that, owing to Communist activities, which seemed likely to make it difficult to designate new women workers, it was decided that the autumn parties of recruits should consist mainly of men. Women candidates whose sailing was postponed hoped to leave for China this year. The total number of new workers was 48.

Miss F. Eynon, who works in the province of Chekiang, said that when she went to China 21 years ago she went into a village where a great deal of forward work had been carried on, and some 400 had professed conversion. When she went there some years afterwards 400 were still standing. When she asked a woman the cause of this the woman replied, "How can you expect us to go on if no one teaches us the Bible?" There had been too few workers to cope with the work. From that time she decided that her life would be devoted to teaching the Bible to the illiterate women of China. She had done so by Bible schools for women, to which all between the ages of 10 and 80 were admitted. All and sundry came to the schools, and it was a work that was practically self-supporting.

"THE INCOMPARABLE DIVISION"

Sir Ian Hamilton's
Tribute

London, April 27.

General Sir Ian Hamilton, standing at the foot of the Kitchener memorial in Horse Guards Parade in the uniform he wore at the Dardanelles, paid a tribute to Lord Kitchener yesterday. Sir Ian Hamilton, who was Commander-in-Chief of the Mediterranean Expeditionary Forces, was addressing 1,800 men of the 29th Division—"The Incomparable Division," he called it—after the placing of wreaths on the Cenotaph in honour of the twenty-first anniversary of the landing at Gallipoli.

Sir Ian Hamilton said:—"Standing on the plinth of the statue of my old chief I feel it in my bones that if I neglect this heaven-sent opportunity of telling you something straight and true about 'K,' then, like the statue of the Governor of Seville in the opera 'Don Giovanni,' he'll come clumping up my stairs to-night to drag me off to God knows where. Lord Kitchener was a genius. In spite of the torrent of words that have poured over his tomb he remains an enigma. He had an implicit faith and absolute trust in the British rank and file, but he carried it to dangerous lengths. He thought that the British soldier was so damned good that he could put in one or two dud generals. In South Africa if a general cried out for reinforcements K. used to take away half the troops he had, and as a rule he found the general managed to carry on with the remnant."

Addressing the statue, he said:—"Now, m'Lord, that's true. You organized and started the Field Force Canteen, which you hoped would provide millions to be spent for the well-being of the ex-Service men. The millions have been spent all right. How much of them reached the ex-Service men is another matter."

Sir Ian Hamilton spoke of the work of the 29th Division in Gallipoli and said that on May 1 a ship would sail bearing a number of pilgrims to revisit the scene of the exploits.

Wreaths were laid on the Cenotaph by General Sir Henry de Lisle, Lieutenant-General Sir Aspiner Hunter-Weston, and Major-General D. E. Cayley, followed by representatives of the units. After the parade the men were entertained at luncheon by the Divisional Officers' Association. Before the

EMPEROR IN EXILE

With Treasure And Pet Python

Haifa, May 8.

With 117 cases of treasure, and a pet python, the Emperor of Abyssinia, the Empress and their family landed here to-day from the British cruiser Enterprise.

"Two out of his three days at sea the Emperor has spent with his Treasurer, counting the gold and silver he had brought," an officer of the cruiser told the British United Press.

It took three hours to unload the treasure—and crates of rare wines. In silence the vessel arrived, in silence the Lion of Judah sat on deck while a white launch sped towards him, bearing the commander of the Naval base.

In silence, too, the officer, came aboard.

Then, with courtesies exchanged, the Emperor went ashore—and in doing so he supplied history with a dramatic moment of Napoleonic grandeur.

Troops presented arms as the Empress and her daughter, with Abyssinian chiefs, landed and went to the train which was to take them to Jerusalem.

The great concourse on the quay waited expectantly. Presently at the top of the gangway the Emperor appeared, and immediately the strains of the Ethiopian hymn floated across the water.

It was too much for the defeated warrior. The Emperor dropped his chin on to his chest to hide the agony of grief which his face betrayed.

And at his feet sat his faithful little white dog, occasionally looking up inquiringly towards his master.

When the hymn was finished the Emperor took control of himself. He held his head high as he walked down the gangway—but his steps were those of an ageing man.

On landing he was greeted by the Mayor and others, and reviewed the guard of honour before entering the train which was to take him to Jerusalem.

29th Division's parade the survivors of the Siege of Kut-el-Amara held a short service and marched to the Cenotaph, where they placed a wreath.

JAPANESE PRESSURE RESENTED BY TROOPS

Sung's Army Growing Restless

TIENTSIN MAYOR'S RESIGNATION

Suggestion By Japanese To Be Ignored

Tientsin, May 31.
Increased tension in North China is threatened as a result of the alleged restiveness of General Sung Cheh-yuan's 29th Army under continued Japanese pressure.

It is reliably reported that high officers of the Army have decided that Hsiao Cheng-yin's resignation which the Japanese military authorities "suggested" should not be tendered and that he should return to Tientsin from Peiping to resume the office of Mayor.

Hsiao Cheng-yin is expected to return within twenty four hours and if he does so grave developments are considered possible.

It is reported that General Sung Cheh-yuan, head of the Hopei-Chahar Political Council, is reported to have resigned in consequence of the present situation.

ARMY GENERAL ASSASSINATED

Shot By Member Of Bodyguard

Peiping, May 31.
Talyuanfu messages state that General Li Sheng-ta, a member of the Central Executive Committee and Commander of the Nineteenth Army, was assassinated by a member of his bodyguard yesterday. The assassin entered the bedroom where the General was still sleeping and shot him with a revolver. General Li was 46 years old and participated in the rising at Wu-chang.

BRITISH SOLDIER BLAMED

Murder Of Japanese In Peiping

DEMAND MADE FOR INVESTIGATION

Peiping, May 30.
The murder of the Japanese named Kisaku Sasaki, whose body was found outside a cabaret, has had a sequel in a demand being presented by the Japanese authorities to the British Embassy for a prompt investigation of the crime, which they allege was committed by a British soldier. Sasaki, who was wearing uniform at the time of the murder, is described as an employee of the Manchukuo Department of Defence.

The demand was communicated verbally by an official of the Japanese Embassy, who reserved the right to make further representations.

The Japanese Embassy issued a statement, alleging that Sasaki was killed in a fight with a group of British soldiers, who on the night of May 26 had been concerned in a series of assaults on Japanese subjects in bars and cabarets, resulting in injuries to four men and one woman. Death was due to cerebral haemorrhage.

FUTURE APPEARS GLOOMY

Hopei-Chahar May Have To Submit

Peiping, May 31.
According to well-informed political observers, no optimism can be entertained in regard to the future developments of the North China situation.

It is reported that Japan has demanded the conclusion of an agreement for joint defence against Communists and the independence of finance in North China as the conditions for the abolition of the East Hopei bogus regime.

With the increase of Japanese troops in North China and the widespread smuggling in the area, it is feared that the Hopei and Chahar Political Affairs Council will not be able to hold out any more, except to accept the Japanese demands.

Two shopkeepers of the Sales Office of the Native Manufactured Goods here were arrested by the Japanese on the charge of anti-Japanese movement.

WHITSUNTIDE AT HOME

Arrangements Made For Great Rush

London, May 30.
Statisticians calculate that 630,000 wheels, representing 43,000 locomotives, will be revolving on the British railways throughout Whit Monday. Already a dense herd of excursionists is circulating throughout the country, seeking rest and recreation. Motor-cars on the main roads from London exceed 3,000 an hour, and cyclists are as sand on the seashore.

The air services to the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands and the Continent are being trebled, the ordinary services being unable to cope with the demand.

For stay-at-homes the International Horse Show, racing of motor cars at Brooklands and special programmes at the suburban pleasure palaces offer diversified entertainment. All appear to be plentifully provided with money.

The banknote circulation at £426,061,963 exceeds that for Whitsuntide last year by £14,000,000.

The weather promises to be fine and chilly.

RECORD BANK NOTE ISSUE

Whitsun Demand And Hoarding

London, May 30.
British bank note circulation reached an all-time record of £426,000,000 partly due to the need for financing Whitsun holiday makers, but mainly on account of the new phenomenon of Frenchmen hoarding British bank notes which crossed the Channel in large numbers during the past few weeks and are even finding their way to the stockings of peasants.

British financial circles, while appreciating the compliment, anticipate that once French confidence in the franc is restored the rush to exchange sterling for francs may be embarrassing.

ANGLO-EGYPTIAN NEGOTIATIONS

Sir Miles Lampson To Visit London

Cairo, May 30.
The High Commission in Egypt, Sir Miles Lampson, is visiting London forthwith to consult the Government on points arising out of the Anglo-Egyptian treaty conversations.

Goods here were arrested by the Japanese on the charge of anti-Japanese movement. It is reported that the Sales Office is selling singlets of the "young girl and umbrella" trade mark. The trade mark is considered as anti-Japanese by the Japanese authorities.

FRENCH METAL WORKERS

Strike Settlement In Sight

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)
Paris, May 30.
Though the metal workers' strike has not yet formally been declared ended there are strong indications that a settlement is virtually in sight.

Owing to the intimation of several of the largest works including the Renault motor works and Gnomes to concede to all the workers' demands, the position of the workers in the remaining factories, though tactically weakened, is morally strengthened since the new standard set by the large works must in the end hold for the whole industry.

Among points conceded in the building trade are a rise of wage from 50 to 75 centimes weekly wage settlements, adequate meal and dressing accommodation and the recognition of the workers' committee to negotiate whenever necessary with the employers.

At all events the total number of strikers which on Friday night was estimated at about 90,000 is reported to have declined to 50,000 on Saturday.

EXCITING CHASE IN THE HILLS

Arab Gang Cornered By Police

BUS AMBUSHED

Jerusalem, May 30.
After an exciting ten miles chase in the hills between Jerusalem and Jericho, an Arab gang was cornered by police. One armed Arab was wounded and captured.

The encounter took place after a Jewish bus was ambushed and fired on heavily from both sides of the road. Two hours later police escorting lorries carrying Dead Sea polish were subjected to heavy firing almost at the same spot.

Two British constables were ambushed and one wounded near Beersheba after delivering bedding for Arab political exiles at Aujelah.

Families of the R.A.F. officers and men have been evacuated from Ramleh to the R.A.F. camp near the military aerodrome.

Another Arab was killed and two wounded when the Seaforth and police searching a village near Nabulus for arms were fired upon from the village and surrounding hills. They returned the fire.

DAMAGE TO CROPS

Haifa, May 30.
Several thousand trees were uprooted at Tiberias and Hadera, and crops were burned at Balfouria near Nazareth. Several fires have occurred at Haifa despite heavy downpours.

Jerusalem, May 30.
The Arab strike committee at Nabulus has issued a manifesto deprecating and dissociating itself with acts of violence and attacks on the police. This gesture raises hopes of a more conciliatory attitude in the future.

ARGENTINE FORCES LEAGUE ACTION

Demand For Assembly To Be Convoked

ETHIOPIAN SITUATION WINDING UP

Concrete Decisions On Sanctions

(“Hong Kong Daily Press” Special)

Geneva, May 30.

The demand made by Argentina that the League of Nations Assembly be convoked for the middle of June has precipitated a crisis which has been latent for some time past. Hitherto no logical course of action regarding the winding up of the situation arising from the outcome of the Italian campaign in Abyssinia has suggested itself. Meanwhile, as long as the deadlock lasts, economic pressure on the sanctionist powers grows more oppressive.

To conceal the predicament of the League powers, it is being asserted here that the Argentine move has no practical significance whatever. In reality, however, the plain fact is that the Argentine motion will force the League to come to concrete decisions, whether to increase, cease or decrease sanctions, whether or not to acknowledge the conquest of Abyssinia by Italy, and finally what the League will do about its own future.

Neutral powers seem to be disposed to either intensify or drop sanctions.

British circles, however, seem more inclined to keep sanctions just as they are while awaiting Signor Mussolini's reaction, whose possible nature nobody is at present prepared to predict.

The League of Nations Secretariat escapes the need for taking any definite attitude at this stage by declaring that so far Argentine's move is only verbal and nothing can be said till the Argentine note arrives, presumably next week.

It is hoped that in the interval, the friendly diplomatic negotiations going on behind the scenes will result in some kind of solution being found.

REASON FOR DEMAND
Geneva, May 29.
The immediate resumption of the plenary session of the League of Nations, which was not concluded, but only adjourned last autumn, has been demanded by Argentine's permanent representative at the League of Nations at an interview held with the Deputy Secretary General on Friday afternoon. This step on the part of Argentina is understood to be due to rumours circulating here in the last few days that Britain or France wishes to postpone the League Council session which was arranged to take place in June.

DRUG FACTORIES AT HANKOW

Geneva Disclosures

Geneva, May 30.
At the meeting of the Opium Advisory Committee, during the discussion of the importation of acid and acetic anhydride into China, it was revealed that of the 10,000 kilos imported in the last six months, 9,000 was by Japanese, especially at Hankow.

Mr. Victor Hoo, the Chinese representative on the committee, suggested that an explanation might lie in the fact that four clandestine factories of narcotics were known to exist in the Japanese concession at Hankow, which produced eight kilos a day—considerably more than sufficient for the total legitimate needs of the world.

PUBLIC WORKS IN ABYSSINIA

Italians To Create Special Fund

Rome, May 30.

The cabinet met this morning, but no mention was made of foreign affairs in the proceedings. A number of decrees were passed among which was the creation of a special fund with initial capital of a hundred million lire to finance public works in Abyssinia.

The decree says that the capital be provided by issue of shares in Italian and also foreign currencies, which indicates the possibility of foreign borrowing for development of Abyssinia.

Another decree provides an increase of personnel in the Colonial Service and four hundred will be sent to Ethiopia as civil servants.

ITALY AND THE LEAGUE

London, May 13.

The reaction of Italy to the retention of sanctions need occasion no surprise. Her withdrawal from the League might not have any serious effect on the League as such, but it might make a reasonable settlement of the dispute between Italy and sanctionist countries more difficult than need be. There is a good deal of bombast in Signor Gayda's observations on the subject, but it is obvious that the continuance of sanctions against her is having only an irritant effect on Italy. Signor Gayda admires the countries whose friendship Italy will prefer to that of sanctionist States, Austria, Hungary, and Albania are small fry, the United States may not be much interested except commercially, but "other important European Powers" may take a hand politically. It is easy to see a hint of co-operation between Italy and Germany here, for both are opportunists in foreign politics. The hint is certainly not lost in France.

It is reported that the Government has thirty million free respirators stored in different parts of the country and these will be distributed to civilians if necessary.

CHAMPIONS' CLOSE CALL

High Scoring Games In Lawn Bowls RECORD SET UP

High scoring was the order of the day in the lawn bowls league games played on Saturday with results coming off accordingly. Yet another possible was scored, this time by a Police ring (N. B. Fraser, T. R. Hunter, R. H. E. Marks and A. E. Carey (Skip), against the Footbawlers "A" rink (E. Strange, J. Dobson, G. E. Stephens and J. Rodger (Skip)). Sixes were also notched by F. X. Soares's four, J. Fraser's and A. M. Holland's quartette.

The Police gave the champions a great fight before succumbing. Both had one rink up and the other was tied, and it was Basa's four that carried the day for the Champions.

In the junior game K.C.C. convincingly defeated C.C.C. by 48 shots and this victory augurs well for the Kowloon team in their quest for the championship. Another 100 per cent. record went to the board when C. G. Silva one of the leading skips lost his match.

Recreio Make Clean Sweep At Tennis

KEEN BADMINTON GAMES

At King's Park yesterday in the second day's play between the visiting Macao team and the Club de Recreio, the home side made a clean sweep of things at tennis, the "A" and "B" sides in the Men's Doubles, winning by eighteen matches to nil.

Each pair played the best of three sets and the Macao visitors, though displaying an encouraging standard, could not really settle down to grass courts, with which they are obviously unaccustomed. At badminton the superiority of the home side was not so apparent.

Following badminton later in the evening, about 150 members and their friends including the visitors, sat down to dinner in the lawn outside, which was specially lighted by huge arc lamps for the occasion.

ST. ANDREW'S RECORD WIN IN BADMINTON

The Club de Recreio defeated the visiting Macao team at Mixed Doubles tennis at King's Park on Saturday, after some spirited encounters that produced a high standard of play.

The de Mello brothers gave a credible account of themselves and did not appear to be so severely handicapped as their team mates on grass courts.

It was originally intended that each pair should play the best of three sets, but as time did not permit this it was decided to play the best of 11 games.

Scores:

F. J. Remedios and Miss Cissy Botelho (Recreio) beat J. de S. Fernandez and Miss Helena Ribeiro 6-5. beat A. H. de Mello and Miss Amalia Nolasco 9-2. beat L. de Mello and Miss Carmen Barretto 7-4.
A. V. Remedios and Miss Alice Roza (Recreio) beat Fernandes and Miss Ribeiro 8-3.
beat A. de Mello and Miss Nolasco 8-3.
beat L. de Mello and Miss Barretto 8-3.
A. V. Gosano and Miss Olga Ribeiro (Recreio) lost to Fernandes and Miss Ribeiro 5-6.
beat A. de Mello and Miss Nolasco 8-3.
beat L. de Mello and Miss Barretto 8-3.

St. Andrew's Club scored a meritorious victory over the visiting Macao team at the St. Andrew's Church Hall on Saturday, by the odd game in nine after some enjoyable and exciting encounters.

F. V. Wong and A. S. Bliss engaged H. Noronha and A. Pereira in the last game the score standing at 4 games all, and amid much excitement the St. Andrew's pair won by 21 aces to 11.

An apparent lack of experience in match-play so essential in the King of indoor games—more than anything else was the reason for the defeat of the visitors at the hands of the Saints in their initial appearance on the local courts.

The results were:

E. F. Fincher and H. Kew (St. Andrews) beat E. Silva and J. Nolasco 21-15.
beat J. Boyol and P. Angelo 21-12.
beat H. Noronha and A. Pereira 21-1.
A. S. Bliss and F. V. Wong (St. Andrews) lost to Silva and Nolasco 9-21.
lost to Boyol and Angelo 17-21.
lost to Noronha and Pereira 21-11.
L. E. Kirby and R. H. Wong (St. Andrews) lost to Silva and Nolasco 4-21.
beat Boyol and Angelo 21-8.
lost to Noronha and Pereira 15-21.

INDIANAPOLIS GRAN PRIX

Louis Meyer Wins In Record Time

Indianapolis, May 30.
Louis Meyer won the 500 miles Indianapolis Grand Prix for the first time in record time of 4 hours 35 minutes 33-100 seconds. His average speed was 109.069 miles an hour, the previous record being 106.242 miles an hour by last year's winner, Kelly Pettito, who did not compete this time.

Meyer drove the entire distance with only two stoppages for tyres and petrol. There was a crowd of 180,000 and only one accident occurred in which Al Miller was thrown from his car and fractured his hip.

Filipino Swimmers At The V. R. C. To-day

This afternoon will see the Philippines world Olympic aquatic team in action at the V.R.C. where it is scheduled to meet a representative side from the Colony.

It is very doubtful whether the visitors will be extended as their times are definitely much better than those of our swimmers.

From the trials held at the V.R.C. on Friday, Chan Chan-hing (C.B.C.) has been selected to represent the Colony in the 100 yards free style and W. Lawrence (V.R.C.) will swim the 400 yards. Norman Lee (S.C.) has been chosen as second swimmer in both these events.

Lionel Roza-Pereira, who beat Lee easily in the 100 yards trial is not swimming as he would rather study the visitors' form than swim against them.

Lau Po-hel (H.K.U.) is, of course, swimming the 100 yards backstroke with Yeung Yu-kwan (Chinese "Y"). Wong Yu-man and Fung Chung-yu will compete in the 200 yards breast stroke.

THE PROGRAMME

The selected Colony and Filipino representatives are as follow:—
100 Yards Free Style: J. Adjaluddin and J. R. Obial (P.I.); Chan Chan-hing (C.B.C.) and Norman Lee (S.C.A.A.).

200 Yards Breaststroke: T. Idefonso and A. Alpad (P.I.); Wong Yu-man (Mak Ngah Association), and Fung Chung-yu (Chinese "Y").

100 Yards Backstroke: N. Christiansen and A. Alpad (P.I.); W. Lawrence (V.R.C.) and Norman Lee (S.C.A.A.).

400 Yards Free Style: J. Adjaluddin and A. Alpad (P.I.); W. Lawrence (V.R.C.) and Norman Lee (S.C.A.A.).

Medley Relay: N. Christiansen (Back), T. Idefonso (Breaststroke) and T. Adjaluddin, or J. R. Obial or A. Alpad (Free Style). Lau Po-hel (H.K.U.) (Back), Wong Yu-man (Mak Ngah) (Breaststroke) and Chan Chan-hing (C.B.C.) (Free Style).

There will also be two events confined to members of the Victoria Recreation Club and a race for women.

LORD CECIL'S DEFENCE OF SANCTIONS

League Should Be Made Effective

SETRACKS MUST BE FACED

London, May 13.
When the House of Lords resumed to-day its adjourned debate on the reform of the League of Nations, Viscount Cecil was the first speaker.

Of reform he had little to say beyond the general advice that the League should be strengthened and made more effective.

His main contention was that only two policies were possible, either the organisation of collective security under some such system as the League, or reversion to the method of alliances and balance of power which prevailed before 1914 and could only lead to a similar but more terrible disaster.

Most of his speech was devoted to a refutation of the arguments advanced by Lord Ponsonby and the Marquess of Lothian last week for the elimination of the principle of coercion from the League.

More conciliation and sitting at a round table would not effect much. That was proved by the failure to restrain Japan in Manchuria.

Unless a real guarantee of security could be offered there could be no advance towards disarmament.

HOARE-LAVAL PLAN BLAMED

The failure of Sanctions in the Italo-Abyssinian dispute Lord Cecil attributed to the Hoare-Laval plan, which was a "terrible disaster." It led Italy to think that she could do anything she liked.

But they must not expect unbroken success in the tremendous task of substituting the rule of law for war. It was incredible, there should be no set-back.

The important things in foreign policy were courage and tenacity. Vacillation and timidity produced war.

The League must discover some preventive means. It might be possible to make more definite the cases in which there should be intervention. No one could tell whether the experiment of a League of Nations would ultimately succeed, but no other system offered a better prospect. We should run risks and give a lead.

Lord Mottistone complained that Lord Cecil had offered no concrete proposal except that we should go on as we had been going.

He condemned the League as badly constructed and lacking judicial sense in its personnel. Sanctions were bound to fail.

Then came a presentation of the Italian defence of the use of poison gas and the counter-charge that Abyssinians had used soft-nosed bullets, which Lord Mottistone thought more cruel. By way of demonstration he produced one from his pocket and explained the sort of wound which it would inflict.

To continue Sanctions, he argued would mean chaos in Abyssinia, and he concluded by objecting to excited people flying from the Cabinet to Geneva. Our representative there should be judicial.

After Lord Sempill had regretted that we could not withdraw from the League forthwith and suggested an arrangement with Germany, France, Italy and Russia, to secure the peace of Europe, the debate was again adjourned.

NAVAL TREATY PROVISIONS

No Guns Mounted Yet

Most foreign governments which subsidise merchant shipping stipulate that suitable vessels shall be available as armed cruisers in an emergency, and that before they are built their design must be approved by the naval authorities. This rule is strictly enforced by the United States, Japan, France and Italy.

In Britain only vessels such as the Queen Mary, the Mauretania and Lusitania are required to conform to certain Admiralty regulations. Owing to her immense size the Queen Mary would be quite unfitted for naval service.

Each of the three naval limitation treaties signed since the war, including the London Pact of last March, provided that merchant vessels may in time of peace have their decks stiffened to mount guns not exceeding 6 in. in calibre.

While there is no rule forbidding the carrying of guns by merchant ships in peace time, no guns are actually mounted at present. Shortly before the war certain British liners on the South American route were armed with 4.7 in. guns at the stern, but no ammunition was provided.

THE FARTHEST STAR.
New Giant Telescope.

THE MYSTERY OF DISTANCES

(BY E. S. GREW.)

London, May 10.
Whatever else the astronomers tell us about the purpose of the big telescopes, their chief aim is discovery. They seek the farthest star. Dr. George Hale, the director of the Mount Wilson Observatory, admits as much when he says that the new 200-inch reflecting mirror to be set up on Mount Palomar should disclose a volume of space fifty times as great as that known eight years ago. It may capture distant objects of the 22nd magnitude.

Star magnitudes are classified like golf handicaps. The higher the figure the less brilliant the competitor. Any one magnitude is two and a half times fainter than the next lower number. Thus a seventh magnitude star is two and a half times fainter than a sixth magnitude. The unaided eye can distinguish stars between these two magnitudes. For the higher magnitudes a telescope is needed.

A similar, but more exact, rule governs the searching power of the telescope which depends on the light-gathering power of its artificial eye, the lens or reflecting mirror.

Thus a 10 in. lens gathers 100 times as much light as a 1 in., and, while the 1 in. can find only ninth magnitude stars, extends its larger range to stars of the fourteenth magnitude. The 100 in. reflecting mirror takes in objects as faint as the nineteenth magnitude. The 200 in. will search the invisible for objects fainter still.

Here we come to the question of distances, for which there are some rough and ready rules, such as that a seventh magnitude star is some fifteen times further away than a first magnitude star like Vega or Capella; and a sixteenth magnitude star is 1,000 times more distant. But a star may be very faint without being very distant. Astronomy seeks more exact measurements.

REVOLVING "BEACONS"

In this century a remarkable new measuring instrument was found in the stars themselves. Among them are bright pulsating giants, seven times greater than our sun, whose light rises and falls at short intervals as regularly as a revolving beacon at sea. The star numbered Delta in the constellation of Cepheus, gives to them the name of Cepheid variables.

Their supreme value as measuring instruments is that there is an unchanging connection between their brightness and the intervals at which they leap into a higher blaze. A Cepheid, wherever it is, which is pulsating at intervals of so many hours or days, always is of the same real brightness. But if it is very distant (like the last of a row of street lamps) it will appear much fainter than it really is. Compare the Cepheid's apparent brightness with what its real brightness is known to be, and a rule of three will give its distance.

With the aid of these standard candles of the sky, the star distances leapt up. Dr. Howard Shapley raised the limiting distance of the known Cepheids and the stars in their neighbourhood from 100 parsecs, or 350 light years, to 6,000 parsecs or 20,000 light years. In the heavens fuzzy balls of light which are star clusters are speeding towards us. Shapley found in one of them a Cepheid beacon 216,000 light years away.

A NEW VISTA.

This was the beginning of a new vista of distances. Far beyond our Galaxy, and apparently running away from it, are the spiral nebulae. Dr. Hubble at Mt. Wilson found a Cepheid in the Andromeda nebula. The standard candle placed its distance at 900,000 light years away. Confirmation was afforded by newly-found Cepheids in other near spiral nebulae. Shapley had multiplied the volume of the visible Universe by ten. Hubble multiplied it by 100, as he turned to the fainter, more distant nebulae.

At these distances the Cepheids have long sunk into invisibility. The calculations are made by a comparison between the real and apparent brightness of the nebulae themselves, which now become the new standard candles of farther space. Some astronomers, appalled by the figures, are dubious. But Dr. Hubble has persisted, undismayed, with his new space, plotting it out into trillion cubic mile blocks for the occupation of 2,000,000 island universes, each 2,000,000 light years apart. He has classified his spiral nebulae into universes of

SLEEP DEFEATS BIG AMBITION

FORCED TO TAKE 'NAP' ON CAPE FLIGHT

London, May 6.
"You were right. Schedule too ambitious, but have hope. Love, Amy."

This telegram was received last night by Mr. Jim Mollison from Cotonou, Dahomey, West Africa, where his wife, Mrs. Amy Mollison, is resting on her attempt to break the England-Cape record by flying there in two and a half days.

"I take that to mean that Amy has found she cannot make the whole distance to the Cape without sleep, as she originally intended so she is resting at Cotonou and expects that she has enough time in hand to break the record after a short sleep," Mr. Mollison said last night.

Mrs. Mollison, says Reuter, reached Cotonou at 1 p.m. yesterday. She had then flown about 3,200 miles and was more than half-way on her journey in twenty-four hours.

NIGHT FLIGHT OVER SAHARA

"She flew the 1,500 miles across the Sahara from Oren to Niamey, French West Africa, during Monday night. Here is the log of her flight so far:—

Left Gravesend—9.5 a.m. Monday.
Arr. Oren (1,150 miles)—5.5 p.m.

Left Oren—6.36 p.m.
Arr. Niamey (1,500 miles)—7.30 a.m. yesterday.

Left Niamey—10 a.m.
Arr. Cotonou—1 p.m.

The present record stands at 3 days 17 hours 38 minutes, set up by Flight-Lieutenant Tommy Rose last February. Rose followed the "All-Red" route via Cairo, Khartoum, Kisumu, Bulawayo and Kimberley. Mrs. Mollison's route is shorter, but more perilous.

In March Mrs. Mollison set out to break Rose's record, but damaged her plane while taking-off from Colomb-Bechar. She is using the same plane on her present flight.

PLAN TO ARM BRITISH MAIL SHIPS

To Be Fitted For Six-inch Guns

AGREEMENT WITH CUNARD CO.

London, May 9. It is disclosed in a White Paper issued yesterday that Cunard White Star liners carrying mails are to be prepared, at the expense of the Admiralty, to carry six-inch guns.

This provision forms part of a schedule attached to a new contract for the conveyance of mails to and from America. It was signed by Major G. C. Tryon, the Postmaster-General, and representatives of the company on April 1.

Other provisions of the contract are:

That in mail ships built in the future endeavours shall be made to protect the steering gear.

That the contractors will encourage the practice of the Admiralty system of signalling with men-of-war, signal stations and merchant ships.

That the contractors will co-operate in the distribution of naval intelligence.

That the contractors will encourage the Royal Naval Reserve movement among the officers and men on board the contractors' ships.

This is the first time that the terms of a mail contract between the Post Office and a shipping company have been made public.

£100,000 A YEAR PAYMENT
Cunard White Star Ltd. will receive £100,000 annually for providing a regular weekly mail service from Southampton to New York. A deduction will be made for each week when an outward mail is not provided. A further £5 per ton will be paid for all mail conveyed on outward voyages by any other of the company's ships.

According to a Treasury minute attached to the contract, it is anticipated that there will be some increase in payment.

The new contract supersedes two old contracts, and will run for two years from Jan. 1, 1935.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSS
One of the clauses covers the loss or damage of any parcel or registered packet. It states that the contractors shall be responsible...

These are the perils which are usually insured against.

The aggregate sums payable by the contractors are not to exceed £1,000 in respect of any one voyage.

It is also stipulated that every mail ship shall have a speed of 20 knots.

The master and officers and at least three-fourths of the crew of every regular mail ship are to be British subjects.

SMALLER FLEET IN MEDITERRANEAN

First Sea Lord's Hint

A hint that the British Fleet in the Mediterranean may shortly be reduced to normal proportions was given yesterday by Admiral of the Fleet Sir Ernie M. Chatfield, First Sea Lord. He was addressing the Union Jack Club, Waterloo-road, S.E.

"The attendances at the Club have suffered during the past seven months," he said, "by the absence of so many serving men in the Mediterranean."

"Tens of thousands of men who should have been enjoying home service have been doing their duty in spots not altogether the most pleasant on the globe. At Alexandria, I suppose, the Fleet had at most 20,000 men at various times."

"But we all hope that the time has come when the necessity for having the men there has passed, and the wives of these soldiers, sailors and airmen will soon see them again."

"Have you any knowledge of the silk and satin departments?"

"Spent all my life in them, sir."

"And what about sheets and blankets?"

"Born among them, sir."

THE "SEASON" OPENS

London, April 23.

The London "season" formally opens at Covent Garden on Monday night, when the initial grand opera programme of the year will synchronise with the end of the period of public mourning. The fashionable audience is certain to follow the wishes of His Majesty and of Queen Mary that the general wearing of mourning for King George should now cease, and that the vast auditorium of the Opera House will be filled with its customary colourful throng. All the Mayfair salons have been particularly busy in recent days with the fitting of gowns in preparation for Monday evening. No matter how important and impressive the members of his audience may be, however, Sir Thomas Beecham is emphasising his command of last season that the doors of the Opera House are to be closed against all late-comers.

EARL BEATTY MEMORIAL: THE KING'S MESSAGE

House of Commons, May 14. The King to-day sent a message to the House of Commons by Major G. F. Davies, Vice-Chamberlain of the Household, consenting to the erection of a public memorial to the late Earl Beatty.

The King said:

"It is indeed fitting that the nation should thus honour the memory of a great Admiral and inspiring leader whose services to his country in a crisis of its history will never be forgotten."

"I will gladly give permission for effect to be given to your proposal."

PETITION SIGNED BY 175,000 PEOPLE

Mr. T. E. Groves (Soc., Stratford) presented a petition signed by 175,000 people asking the House to make illegal the practice of vivisection. Two messengers were required to carry the petition, which was made up in nine bundles.

ENG. REAR ADMIRAL HURST RETIRES

Making Way For Juniors Notice Of Intention

London, April 29. It was announced in last night's "London Gazette" that Engineer Rear-Admiral A. E. Hurst has been placed on the Retired List at his own request, "in order to facilitate the promotion of junior officers."

Rear-Admiral Hurst, who is 58, served in Harwich and Scapa torpedo flotillas during the Great War.

In 1927-30 he was squadron engineer officer for the Atlantic Fleet destroyer flotilla, and in 1923-26 engineer officer in the aircraft-carrier Furious. Three years ago he was appointed senior engineer officer on the staff of the Commander-in-Chief, at Devonport.

"IT WAS A CABINET LEAK, IF ANY"

NO SERVANT, SAYS SIR M. HANKEY

London, May 13.

Elaborate precautions taken to prevent any leakage of Budget secrets were told to the Budget Inquiry Tribunal by Sir Maurice Hankey when, yesterday, he gave evidence at the resumed hearing.

Sir Maurice is the Secretary to the Cabinet.

He disclosed that no discussion of the Chancellor's proposals takes place in the Cabinet until the day he makes his Budget known to Ministers—usually a few days before Budget Day.

He said positively that there is no possibility of a leakage through servants, for no one except members of the Cabinet is present.

NOT EVEN A NOTE
"The utmost precautions are taken," he declared, "no memorandum even of the Chancellor's proposals is prepared... nothing in writing is given to Ministers... the Chancellor's statement is an oral one."

At the end of Sir Maurice's statement, Mr. Justice Porter, chairman of the Tribunal, summed up the position thus:

"From your point of view either there must be no leakage or the leakage must be through the Cabinet itself?"

Sir Maurice agreed: "From my point of view," he said.

MR. L. THOMAS BACK
Before Sir Maurice had gone into the witness-box Sir Donald Somervell had asked Mr. Leslie Thomas (son of the Cabinet Minister and partner in the stockbroking firm of Belisha and Company) to return to the witness-box.

Mr. Leslie Thomas had given evidence the previous day that he had carried out Budget insurance transactions for a Mr. Alfred Bates, an old friend of his father, and the Attorney-General now asked:

"Did you tell your partners in Belisha and Company of the part you were taking in Budget insurance risks?"

Mr. Thomas: "Not until after the business had gone through. I was in the office when news came through on the tape of an increase in income tax, and I said 'Good gracious me, Bates' insurance has come off.'"

AN INFORMAL JUDGE
Mr. Justice Porter, President of the Tribunal, is no stickler for mere formalities. He is conducting the inquiry with easy grace, but searchingly, with now and then sharp "staccato" questions which show a vivid light on transactions.

He figured in one unusual interlude, when in wig and gown he left his seat, and going to the witness-box, leaned over, chatting away in quiet conversational tones with a witness, discussing certain items in the books produced.

EXPANSION OF TIN PRODUCTION

Malaya To Make No More Concessions

Ipo, May 31. Malaya has reached the point at which she will not make further concessions permitting the expansion of tin production elsewhere to the detriment of local industries, declared Mr. C. L. Green when presiding at the annual meeting of the F.M.S. Chamber of Mines. He was reluctant to believe that Siam will maintain an attitude leading to a deadlock.

LORD MAYOR TO VISIT VANCOUVER

London, April 29. For the first time in history the Lord Mayor of London in his official capacity as the greatest overseas. It is learned to-day that Sir Percy Vincent, sword-bearer, and City Marshal, will without (for obvious reasons) the traditional coach, is to visit Vancouver this summer during the celebrations of that city's Golden Jubilee. This is the longest official trip ever made by a Lord Mayor, and it is due to the successful negotiations of Mr. W. A. McAdam, acting Agent-General of British Columbia in London. Mr. McAdam, like many British Columbians, is of Scottish parentage. The visit of Lord Tweedsmuir, the Governor-General of Canada, on August 24, will be the peak of the Golden Jubilee celebrations.

DUTCH BANK RATE RAISED

("Hong Kong Daily Press" Special)

Amsterdam, May 29.

The Nederlandsche Bank announced on Friday a rise in bank-rate from 2 1/2% to 3 1/2% as from May 30. The last change in bank-rate took place in February 4, 1936, when it was lowered by 1/2% to 2 1/2%. This measure came as a complete surprise and was on Friday night explained by leading men in financial circles here as due to the indirect effects of the flight of capital from France with a consequent swollen demand for Pounds Sterling and Dollars, resulting in a pressure on the Guilder.
In general, the rise of the bank-rate by a whole 1% is regarded merely as a precautionary measure of the Nederlandsche Bank. The last bank return published showed a decrease of Goldstock by 1420 million Guilders, leaving 683.1 million Guilders, so that there is no reason for uneasiness.

ANOTHER STEEL OUTPUT RECORD

London, May 31.

Yet another high record was set up by British steel production last month. Production reached 991,500 tons, an increase of 11,400 tons on the record output of the previous month, and in view of the holiday stoppage during the period the achievement is truly remarkable. It tells alike of the continued trade recovery throughout the country and the increased efficiency of the steel trade. Orders on hand give indications of continued activity for a good many months to come, and while the position would be sounder if export business could be had in greater volume it has to be remembered that the output for steel in these times is steadily increasing through its use in new products.
